

ABSTRACT

TITLE:

The variation in knitted hosiery fabric manufactured by Pakistani Textile Industries.

OBJECTIVE:

- To find out recent production & manufacturing process of knitted Hosiery fabrics according to demand and supply in foreign market.
- To find out the technology and system used in hosiery industry.

METHODOLOGY:

The study design was quantitative in nature. Questionnaire cum interview had been used as the research tool in this study. The questionnaire was filled by the managers of 12 hosiery industries. The questions were based upon the quality of production & demand of consumer. Technology & system also determined by this study.

RESULT:

The conclusion of this research is depend upon the views of the manufacturers. The process involved in the fabrication production is strictly on buyer demand. 25% manufacturers used cotton fiber for yarn. 25% manufacturers used polyester fiber for yarn. 25% manufacturers used 10 -30 count range. 83.33% manufacturers used weft knitting in hosiery fabric. 75% manufacturers used circular knitting machines .