

ABSTRACT

TITLE

A study to assess the implication of religion on women's clothing in lower, middle, and upper classes.

OBJECTIVES:

- 1-To find out the influence of religion on women's clothing in different socio economic status and which group of women gives more preference to religion in the selection of clothing.
- 2- To find out religious and modern concepts of women's clothing.

METHODOLOGY:

The study about the implications on women's clothing which belong to different income levels was purely a descriptive study because the views of women were taken and their count and percentages were analyzed. This study was dependent upon views of respondent .The purpose of this study was to find out influence of Islam on women's clothing. The questionnaire was used as a data collection tool. The questionnaire was filled by the women who belong in different income levels.

The sample size for this research was 150 adult women. The study was carried out in a randomly selected town of Karachi from the total of 18 towns. And 3 areas were selected from the randomly selected town on the basis of socio economics status. And 50 adult women were randomly selected from each area for comparison in their clothing styles.